ORDERS IN COUNCIL.

AT THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL CHAMBER,
VICTORIA, B. C.

Thursday, the 29th day of July, A.D. 1909.

PRESENT:

HIS HONOUR THE LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS section 23 of the "Game Protection Act, 1898," enacts that it shall be lawful for the Lieutenant-Governor in Council from time to time to make rules and regulations, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, for carrying out the true intent and meaning thereof, and for the protection of game in the Province:

It is hereby ordered by His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor, by and with the advice of his Executive Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers vested in His Honour by the said Act, as follows, that is to say—

That the hunting, killing or taking of Elk or Wapiti in the Columbia, Cranbrook and Fernie Electoral Districts shall be prohibited until the 31st day of August, 1911:

And on Vancouver Island south of the following described line, "commencing at the mouth of the Little Qualicum River; thence following that stream westerly to its junction with the Alberni Road; thence following the Alberni Road to the Alberni Canal," the hunting, killing or taking of Elk or Wapiti shall be prohibited until the 31st day of August, 1914:

That the hunting, killing or taking of Moose south of the 52nd Parallel of latitude in the Province, excepting in the Columbia Electoral District, shall be prohibited until the 31st day of August, 1914:

That the hunting, killing or taking of Mountain Sheep in the Counties of Yale and Westminster shall be prohibited until the 31st day of August, 1911:

That the disabilities as to the shooting of ducks of all kinds, and snipe, shall be removed with respect to Vancouver Island, and the Islands adjacent thereto, from the 1st day of October, 1909, to the 28th day of February, 1910, both days inclusive:

That the disabilities as to the shooting of Cock Pheasants, Quail and Grouse of all kinds, shall be removed with respect to Vancouver Island, and the Islands adjacent thereto, except North and South Saanich Municipalities, from the 1st day of October, 1909, to the 31st day of December, 1909, both days inclusive:

And it is further ordered that Order in Council dated the 22nd day of July, 1909, providing for the protection of game in the Province shall be and the same is hereby rescinded.

FREDK. J. FULTON,
Clerk, Executive Council.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM RULES AND ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

RULE 59.

ALL APPLICATIONS for Private Bills, properly the subject of legislation by the Legislative Assembly of British Columbia, within the purview of the "British North America Act, 1867," whether for the erection of a Bridge, the making of a Railway, Tramway, Turnpike Road, or Telegraph or Telephone Line; the construction or improvement of a Harbour, Canal, Lock, Dam, Slide, or other like work: the granting of a right of Ferry; the incorporation of any particular trade or calling, or of any Joint Stock Company; or otherwise for granting to any individual or individuals any exclusive or peculiar rights or privileges whatever, or for doing any matter or thing which in its operation would affect the rights or property of other parties, or relate to any particular class of the community, or for making any amendment of a like nature to any former Act,—shall require a Notice, clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application and, where the application refers to any proposed work, indicating generally the location of the work, and signed by or on behalf of the applicants, such notice to be published as follows:—

In the BRITISH COLUMBIA GAZETTE, and in one newspaper published in the District affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper in the next nearest District in which a newspaper is published.

Such notice shall be continued in each case for a period of at least six weeks, during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the Petition, and copies of such notice shall be sent by the parties inserting such notice to the Clerk of the House, to be filed amongst the records of the Committee on Standing Orders.

57. No Petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any Report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no Motion for the suspension or modification of this Rule shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committee charged with consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this Rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the Petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required as herein mentioned, unless the House shall order to the contrary. Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight days before the opening of the Session, a printed copy of such Bill, a copy of the Petition to be presented to the House, together with the notices published. At the time of depositing the Bill, the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House a sum of three hundred dollars. If a copy of the Bill, Petition and notices shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight days before the opening of the Session, and if the Petition has not been presented within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees paid shall be returned.

60. Before any Petition, praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a Toll Bridge, is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Rule 59, also at the same time and in the same manner, give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts and vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

61. All Private Bills for Acts of Incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference the clauses of the General Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills:—Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the General Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Rule shall be re-cast by the promoters and re-printed at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

65. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in Small Pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10¾ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Two hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

By new Rule 65A, passed on the 2nd April, 1901, (see Journals, 1901, page 58), a model form of Railway Bill is adopted.

By 65B all Bills to incorporate or amend Bills incorporating railway companies are to be drawn in accordance with the Model Bill.

The provisions contained in any Bill which are not in accord with the Model Bill shall be inserted between brackets.

Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any such Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for the same.

Under a new rule, see Journals 7th March, 1908, in the case of Bills to Incorporate Companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in rule 57, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

Dated 5th November, 1901.

(m.) To dig for, raise, crush, wash, smelt, assay, analyse, reduce, amalgamate and otherwise treat gold, silver, copper, lead ores or deposits, and other minerals and metallic substances of all kinds, whether belonging to the Company or not, and to render the same merchantable, and to buy, sell and deal in the same, or any of them:

(n.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the Company's property and assets:

(o.) To borrow, raise or secure the payment of money on security of the whole or any part of the property and assets belonging to the Company, and to grant, execute, seal and deliver mortgages, bonds, bills of sale, debentures, or other securities for the same:

(p.) To create and issue at par, or at a premium or discount, debentures, mortgage debentures, debenture stock and other securities, payable to bearer or otherwise, and either perpetual or redeemable, or re-payable, with or without bonus or premium, and either at a fixed date or by drawings, and collaterally to secure any securities of the Company by means of bonds or trust deeds or otherwise, and in the case of uncalled capital to confer upon the incumbrancer such powers of making and enforcing calls as the Directors may think fit:

(q.) To lend money on real or personal security, and generally to carry on business as financiers and investors, and to undertake and carry out all business transactions and operations (except the issuing of policies of insurance, either fire, life or marine, as underwriter on the credit of the Company) as an individual capitalist might lawfully undertake and carry out:

(r.) To lend and advance money to such parties, and on such terms as may seem expedient, and in particular to customers of and persons having dealings with the Company, and to make, draw, accept, indorse and discount promissory notes, bills of exchange, and other and all negotiable instruments:

(s.) To purchase, lease, construct and hold, or otherwise acquire foreshore and territorial water rights, foreshore rights and privileges, real and personal property, patents, machinery, warehouses, wharves and other buildings and easements, and to sell, lease or mortgage the same, or any part thereof:

(t.) To acquire concessions, licences, leases, rights and privileges as may be found necessary or desirable for the attainment of the objects of the Company, or any of them, and to exercise generally all such powers as may from time to time be conferred on this Company by Act of Parliament, charter, licence or other executive or legislative authority:

(u.) To purchase, lease or otherwise acquire any business similar in character to the herein stated objects, and to acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which this Company is authorised to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company:

(v.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, reciprocal concessions or co-operation with any person or company carrying on, or about to carry on, or engage in any business or transaction which the Company is authorised to carry on, or engage in any business transaction capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit the Company, and to take or otherwise acquire shares or stock or securities in any company, and to subsidise or otherwise assist any such company, and to sell, hold and use, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with such shares or securities:

(u.) To acquire any water power by records of unrecorded water, or by the purchase of water records or water privileges, and to divert, take and carry away water from any stream, river and lake in British Columbia, and to render water and water power available for use, application and distribution by means of and by the purchase or erection or carrying out, and the maintaining of any works, erections, undertakings or improvements whatsoever, and to operate and carry on the business of a power company, and to use water and water power for producing any form of power, and for producing and generating electricity for the purposes of light, heat and power, and to sell and supply light, heat, water, water power, compressed air, electricity and electric power, and any other forms of developed power to consumers for any purposes to or for which compressed air, electric power, or any other form of developed power may be applied or required:

(v.) To allot the shares of the Company credited as fully or partly paid up as the whole or part of the purchase price for any property, real or personal, purchased by the Company, or for any valuable considerations, as from time to time may be determined:

(w.) To carry on any other business which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the above, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of, or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights, and to do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects, or any of them:

(x.) To obtain any Act of Parliament or of Legislature to enable the Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for dissolving the Company and re-incorporating its members as a new company for any of the objects specified in this memorandum, or for effecting any other modification in the constitution of the Company. au12

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION.

I HEREBY CERTIFY that the "Fernridge Lumber Company, Limited," has this day been incorporated under the "Companies Act, 1897," as a Limited Company, with a capital of fifty thousand dollars, divided into five hundred shares of one hundred dollars each.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this 29th day of July, one thousand nine hundred and nine.

[L.S.]

S. Y. WOOTTON,

Registrar of Joint Stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

1. To purchase or acquire and carry on as a going concern the business of any persons, firm or corporation now or hereafter carrying on business as manufacturers of lumber, shingles, boxes, doors, blinds, sashes and any other articles of which wood shall form a component part, and to pay for any business so acquired either in cash or in shares of this Company, or partly in cash and partly in such shares:

2. To carry on business as lumbermen, lumber merchants, mill owners, lumber and shingle manufacturers in all or any of its branches, and to buy, sell, prepare for market, import, export and deal in saw logs, timber, lumber, shingles, sashes, doors, and wood products, and to manufacture and deal in materials of all kinds in the manufacture of which wood is used or forms a component part:

3. To acquire, erect, buy or lease and operate saw mills, shingle mills, or factories for the manufacture of lumber either in the rough or finished state, and for manufacturing or finishing all articles of trade made therefrom, and to acquire, buy, lease or hire all machinery and appliances of every kind and description that may be necessary or used in connection therewith:

4. To acquire by location, purchase, lease or otherwise and hold lands, mill sites, timber lands, timber leases, licences to cut timber, rights-of-way, water rights and privileges, water courses, foreshore rights, rights to build tramways, skidways, roads, booms, wharves, docks, piers, dams and works incidental to collecting, receiving, safe-keeping, and transmission of saw logs, and rights to clear and remove obstructions from any lake or river, and to have the rights and privileges conferred by the "Rivers and Streams Act":

5. To carry on the business of cutting and getting out logs, bolts and timber, whether from the lands of the Company or otherwise:

6. To acquire, charter, build and operate steamers and steam tugs, barges and other vessels, or any interest therein, to let out, hire or charter the same for any purpose, and to tow logs and timber, and to carry on the business of carriers, warehousemen, wharfingers and shipping agents:

7. To carry on a general mercantile business:

8. To generate power, and sell, lease or dispose of the same:

9. To purchase, lease or otherwise acquire, hold, deal in and turn to account real and personal property of every nature and kind whatsoever:

10. To apply for, purchase or otherwise acquire patents, licences or concessions conferring any exclusive or limited right or any interest therein, and to grant licences in respect to the same or otherwise deal with or turn the same to account:

11. To purchase or otherwise acquire townsites, town or city lots, and subdivide the same, erect buildings or improvements thereon, and whether improved or unimproved, to sell land and generally to do a real estate improvement and investment business:

12. To erect, purchase or acquire and carry on boarding-houses for the accommodation of employees of the Company and others:

13. To carry on any other business, manufacturing or otherwise, which may be conveniently carried on in connection with the business of this Company, or calculated, directly or indirectly to enhance the value or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights:

14. To enter into any arrangement for the sharing of expenses and profits or union of interests with any person, firm or corporation in any business or transaction:

15. To loan money to and take, purchase or acquire the shares or debentures or securities of any company or corporation:

16. To enter into any arrangement with any government or authority, Dominion, Provincial, municipal or otherwise, that may seem to be of advantage to the Company, and to obtain from any such government or authority any rights, privileges and concessions which the Company may deem it advisable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise and comply with and deal with such arrangements, rights and privileges or concessions, and sell or dispose of the same, or any interest therein, or otherwise turn same to account:

17. To obtain any Act of Parliament or Legislature to carry out any object of the Company, or for any other purpose that to the Company may seem expedient, and to oppose any proceeding which may seem calculated to prejudice the interests of the Company:

18. To sell, barter, exchange or otherwise dispose of any property, real or personal, of the Company, or rights, powers or privileges owned by the Company, or any interest therein, for such consideration as the Company may deem to its advantage, and in particular for shares, debentures or securities of any other company:

19. To promote any other company for the purpose of acquiring any property, rights or privileges of the Company, or for any other purpose which may seem directly or indirectly of benefit to the Company:

20. To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company upon such securities and upon such terms as the Company may determine:

21. To make, draw, accept, indorse, discount, buy, sell and deal in promissory notes, bills of exchange, cheques, bonds, debentures, coupons, and other negotiable instruments and securities:

22. To borrow and raise money for the purpose of the Company, but so that the amount so borrowed or raised shall not, without the sanction of a general meeting of the Company, exceed one-quarter of the capital paid up of the Company, and for the purpose of securing payment of such money and interest, or for any other purpose, to mortgage or charge the undertaking or all or any part of the property of the Company, present or after acquired, and to create, issue, make, draw, accept and negotiate perpetual or redeemable debentures or debenture stock, promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, obligations or other negotiable or transferable instruments; provided, however, that the restrictions in this sub-section contained as to borrowing without the sanction of a general meeting shall not be deemed to be imperative, and shall in nowise limit or affect any power of borrowing vested in the Board of Directors of the Company, or of the Company, or under the Memorandum and Articles of Association of the Company or its by-laws, or under the provisions of the "Companies Act, 1897," and amending Acts:

23. To distribute the property of the Company or any part thereof among the members in specie:

24. To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the foregoing objects, or any or either of them. au5

(f.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire any contracts, decrees, concessions, patents, brevets d'inventions, franchises, licences, water-rights or other privileges whatsoever for or in relation to the construction, execution, carrying out, equipment, improvement, management, administration, or control of works and conveniences undertaken or contemplated by the Company, and to undertake, execute, carry out, dispose of or otherwise turn to account the same:

(g.) To lend money, either with or without security, and generally to such persons and upon such terms and conditions as the Company may think fit, and in particular to persons undertaking to build on or improve any property in which the Company is interested, and to tenants, builders and contractors:

(h.) To acquire and hold shares, stocks, debentures, debenture stocks, bonds, obligations, and securities issued or guaranteed by any company constituted or carrying on business in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere, any debentures, debenture stock, bonds, obligations and securities issued or guaranteed by any Government, sovereign ruler, commissioners, public body, or authority, supreme, municipal, local or otherwise, whether at home or abroad:

(i.) To acquire any such shares, stocks, debentures, debenture stocks, bonds, obligations, or securities by original subscription, tender, purchase, exchange, or otherwise, and to subscribe for the same either conditionally or otherwise, and to guarantee the subscription thereof, and to exercise and enforce all rights and powers conferred by or incident to the ownership thereof:

(j.) To issue debenture stock, debentures, bonds, obligations and securities of all kinds, and to frame, constitute and secure the same, as may seem expedient, with full power to make the same transferable by delivery, or by instrument of transfer or otherwise, and either perpetual or terminable, and either redeemable or otherwise, and to charge or secure the same by trust, deed, or otherwise, on the undertaking of the Company, or upon any specific property and rights, present and future, of the Company (including, if thought fit, uncalled capital) or otherwise howsoever:

(k.) To facilitate and encourage the creation, issue, or conversion of debentures, debenture stock, bonds, obligations, shares, stocks and securities, and to act as trustees in connection with any such securities, and to take part in the conversion of business concerns and undertakings into companies:

(l.) To take part in the management, supervision, or control of the business or operations of any company or undertaking, and for that purpose to appoint and remunerate any directors, accountants, or other experts or agents:

(m.) To employ experts to investigate and examine into the condition, prospects, value, character and circumstances of any business concerns and undertakings, and generally of any assets, property or rights:

(n.) To constitute any trusts with a view to the issue of preferred and deferred or any other special stocks or securities based on or representing any shares, stocks or other assets specifically appropriated for the purposes of any such trust, and to settle and regulate, and, if thought fit, to undertake and execute any such trusts, and to issue, dispose of, or hold any such preferred, deferred or other special stocks or securities:

(o.) To transact or carry on all kinds of agency business, and in particular in relation to the investment of money, the sale of property, and the collection and receipt of money:

(p.) To give any guarantee in relation to the payment of any debentures, debenture stock, bonds, obligations or securities:

(q.) Generally to carry on business as financiers, and to undertake and carry out all such operations and transactions (except the issuing of policies of assurance on human life) as an individual capitalist may lawfully undertake and carry out:

(r.) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which this Company is authorised to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company:

(s.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorised to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit this Company; and to take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit this Company:

(t.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the properties or liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem directly or indirectly calculated to benefit this Company:

(u.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(v.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incidental to the formation registration and advertising of the Company, and to remunerate any person or company for services rendered, or to be rendered, in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of any of the shares in the Company's capital, or any debentures or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(w.) To borrow or raise money for any purpose of the Company and for the purpose of securing the same, and interest, or for any other purpose, to mortgage or charge the whole or any part of the property of the Company present or afterwards acquired, or its uncalled capital; and draw, make, accept, indorse, discount, execute and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(k.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(l.) To borrow or raise money for any purpose of the Company, and for the purpose of securing the same and interest, or for any other purpose, to mortgage or charge the undertaking or all or any part of the property of the Company, present or after acquired, or its uncalled capital, and to create, issue, make, draw, indorse, accept and negotiate perpetual or redeemable debentures or debenture stock, promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, obligations and other negotiable or transferable instruments or securities:

(m.) To locate, purchase or otherwise acquire any water rights, and to utilise such water for generating power and electricity:

(n.) To use water, steam, electricity or any other power now or hereafter to become known as a motive power, or in any other way for the purposes and uses of the Company:

(o.) To charter, hire, build, purchase or otherwise acquire, maintain and operate steamboats and other vessels:

(p.) To build, acquire, lease or otherwise hold refrigerator cars and other conveyances or contrivances for the purpose of cold storage while in transit or otherwise, and equip and operate such cars and other conveyances or contrivances:

(q.) To carry on any other business which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with any of the above, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to render profitable or enhance the value of the Company's property or rights for the time being:

(r.) To amalgamate with any other company now or hereafter incorporated, having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(s.) To obtain any Act of Parliament, either Dominion or Provincial, and to obtain any municipal by-law or regulation for enabling this Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for effecting any modifications of this Company's constitution, or for any other purpose that may seem expedient, and to oppose any proceedings or applications which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly to prejudice this Company's interests:

(t.) To acquire from the Government, either Provincial or Dominion, or otherwise, or from any municipality or corporation, any concessions, licences, leases, rights and privileges, as may be found necessary or desirable for the attainment of the objects of the Company, or any of them, and to exercise generally all such powers as may from time to time be conferred on this Company by Act of Parliament, charter, licence or other executive or legislative authority, or by any municipal or corporation by-law, resolution or regulation:

(u.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of and incidental to the formation and registration of the Company, or in or about the promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(v.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property of the Company:

(w.) To distribute any of the property of this Company among its members in specie:

(x.) To procure this Company to be registered in any place or country:

(y.) To do all or any of the above things, either in the Province of British Columbia or in any part of the world, and as principals, agents, contractors, trustees or otherwise, and by or through agents, trustees or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(z.) To do all such other acts as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects, or any of them, and to exercise generally all such powers as may from time to time be conferred on this Company by any Act of Parliament, charter, licence or other executive or legislative authority.

"COMPANIES ACT, 1897."

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION.

I HEREBY CERTIFY that "The People's Grocery and Bakery Company, Limited," has this day been incorporated under the "Companies Act, 1897," as a Limited Company, with a capital of ten thousand dollars, divided into ten thousand shares of one dollar each.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this 4th day of August, one thousand nine hundred and nine.

[L.S.]

S. Y. WOOTTON,

Registrar of Joint Stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(a.) To acquire and take over as a going concern the whole of the business carried on by Mr. A. Pomfret, of Hawks Avenue, Vancouver, in the Province of British Columbia, as a grocer, baker and confectioner, including the whole of the stock-in-trade, fixtures, fittings and trade utensils, the lease of the premises, the good-will and book debts and other assets connected with or appertaining to such business, and to establish other stores as opportunity may occur in different parts of British Columbia:

(b.) "To carry on the business of wholesale or retail grocers, confectioners, bread bakers, pastry cooks, sugar boilers, restaurant or hotel proprietors, and any business, whether manufacturing or otherwise, which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the above, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render more profitable any of the Company's property:

(c.) To purchase or by other means acquire any freehold, leasehold or other property, or any rights, privileges or easements over or in respect of any property, and any buildings, factories, mills, works, wharves, roads, railways, tramways, machinery, engines, rolling stock, plant, live and dead stock, and any real or personal property or right whatsoever which may be necessary for, or may be conveniently used with, or may enhance the value of, any other property of the Company:

(d.) To purchase or by other means acquire and protect, prolong or renew, whether in Canada or elsewhere, any patents, patent rights, brevets d'invention, licences, protections and concessions which may appear likely to be advantageous or useful to the Company, and to use and turn to account and to manufacture under or grant licences or privileges in respect of the same, and to spend money experimenting upon and testing and in improving, or seeking to improve, any patents, inventions or rights which the Company may acquire or propose to acquire:

(e.) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, good-will and assets of any person, firm or company carrying on, or proposing to carry on, any of the business which this Company is authorised to carry on, and as part of the consideration for such acquisition to undertake all or any of the liabilities of such person, firm or company, or acquire an interest in, amalgamate with, or enter into any arrangement for sharing profits, or for co-operation, or for limiting competition, or for mutual assistance with any such person, firm or company, and to give or accept by way of consideration for any of the acts or things aforesaid, or property acquired, any share, debentures or securities that may be agreed upon, and to hold or retain or sell, mortgage and deal with any shares, debentures or securities so received:

(f.) To promote any other company for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property, and undertaking any of the liabilities of this Company, or of undertaking any business or operation which may appear likely to assist or benefit this Company, or to enhance the value of any property or business of this Company:

(g.) To sell or otherwise dispose of the whole or any part of the undertaking of the Company, either together or in portions, for such considerations as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures or securities of any Company purchasing the same:

(h.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required upon such securities and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(i.) To lend and advance money or give credit to such persons and on such terms as may seem expedient, and in particular to customers and others having dealings with the Company, and to give guarantee or become security for any such persons:

(j.) To borrow or raise money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of bonds and debentures, or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, and to secure the repayment of any money borrowed or raised by mortgage, charge or lien upon the whole or any part of the Company's property or assets, whether present or future, including its uncalled capital, and also by a similar mortgage, charge or lien to secure and guarantee the performance by the Company of any obligation or liability it may undertake:

(k.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(l.) To obtain any Act of Parliament for enabling this Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of this Company's constitution, or for any other purpose which may seem expedient, or to oppose any proceeding or applications which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company's interests:

"COMPANIES ACT, 1897."

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION.

I HEREBY CERTIFY that the "Nelson-Kootenay Fruit Lands, Limited," has this day been incorporated under the "Companies Act, 1897," as a Limited Company, with a capital of one hundred thousand dollars, divided into one thousand shares of one hundred dollars each.

The time of the existence of the Company is fifty years.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this 3rd day of August, one thousand nine hundred and nine.

[L.S.]

S. Y. WOOTTON,

Registrar of Joint Stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(a.) To purchase or lease any real or personal property in the Province of British Columbia, and to pay for the same either in money or fully paid-up shares in the Company, or partly in money or partly in such shares, and sell or lease, or otherwise dispose of the same, or any of them:

(b.) To take, receive and hold all estates and property, real and personal, which are granted, transferred or conveyed to it in any manner whatsoever, not contrary to law, at any time, by any association, society, person or body corporate, or by any order, judgment or decree of any Court in Canada or elsewhere:

(c.) To act as purchasing, investing and managing agents of estates and properties, and for and on behalf of all persons or corporations:

(d.) To undertake and carry into effect all such financial, trading or other operations or business in connection with the objects of the Company, as the Company may think fit:

(e.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the company, or any part thereof, for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, bonds, debentures or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(f.) Generally to purchase, take on lease or exchange, hire, locate, record or otherwise acquire any power plant or power privileges, saw mills, timber limits, timber licences, or any real or personal property of any nature or kind whatsoever, and any rights, water rights or privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business:

(g.) To construct, operate and maintain electric works, power-houses, generating plant and other such appliances and conveniences as are necessary and proper for the generating of electricity or electric power, or any other form of developed power, and for transmitting the same to be used by the Company or by any person or company contracting with this Company therefor, as a motive power for the operation of motors, machinery, electric lighting or other works, or to be supplied by the Company for heating or as a motive power:

(h.) To place, sink, lay, fit, maintain and repair electric lines, cumulators, storage batteries, electric cables, mains, wires, pipes, switches, connections or other apparatus or devices, cuts, drains, water-courses, pipes, poles, buildings and other erections or works, and erecting and placing any electric line, cable-main, wire or other electric apparatus above or below ground:

(i.) To borrow or raise money for any purpose of the Company, and for the purpose of securing the same and interest, or for any other purpose, to mortgage or charge the undertaking of all or any part of the property of the Company, present or afterwards acquired, or its uncalled capital, and to create, issue, make, draw, accept and negotiate perpetual or redeemable debentures or debenture stock, bonds, promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, obligations and other negotiable and transferable instruments:

(j.) To mortgage or charge the undertaking of all or any part of the Company, present or afterwards acquired, including its earnings or its uncalled capital, for the purpose of securing the bonds or debentures of the Company, or securing the debts or obligations of the Company, whether created directly by the Company or debts by any other company assumed by the Company, or otherwise:

(k.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among the members in specie:

(l.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incident to the formation, registration and advertising of the Company, and to remunerate any person or company for services rendered, or to be rendered, in placing or assisting to place, or the guaranteeing the placing, of any of the shares in the Company's capital, or any debentures or other securities in the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(m.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property or rights of the Company:

(n.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects. au12

DOMINION ORDERS IN COUNCIL.

AT THE GOVERNMENT HOUSE AT OTTAWA.

Monday, the 21st day of June, 1909.

PRESENT:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE ADMINISTRATOR
IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS owing to the reorganisation of the National Forest Parks, it has become necessary to revise the Regulations relating to the Rocky Mountains Park of Canada, and to establish regulations which will apply to all of the National Parks,—

Therefore His Excellency the Administrator in Council is pleased to order that the Order in Council of the 30th June, 1890, establishing Regulations for the Control and Management of the Rocky Mountains Park of Canada, shall be and the same are hereby rescinded, and that the attached Regulations of the National Parks of Canada shall be and the same are hereby established and shall have force and effect within the Rocky Mountains Park of Canada, Yoho Park, Glacier Park, Jasper Park and Elk Island Park.

RODOLPHE BOUDREAU,

*Clerk of the Privy Council.*REGULATIONS OF THE NATIONAL PARKS
OF CANADA.Residence in the Parks.

1. No person shall, without permission from the Minister of the Interior, reside permanently within other portions of the parks than those sold or leased.

2. The Minister of the Interior shall have power to cause such portions of the Parks as from time to time he may designate to be surveyed and laid out in building lots, for the construction thereon of buildings for ordinary habitation and purposes of trade and industry, and for the accommodation of persons resorting to the Parks, and may issue leases for such lots for any term, not exceeding forty-two years, with the right of renewal, at rentals to be from time to time fixed by him; also to set apart such portions of the Parks as he may think proper for the sites of market-places, jails, court-houses, places of public worship, burying grounds, benevolent institutions, squares, and for other similar public purposes.

3. There shall be a reservation for the use of the public of one hundred feet in width along the shore of each lake, river or stream within the Parks, and any grant, lease or other disposal of lands within the Parks shall be subject to such reservation.

4. All leases or licences of occupation shall be in such form as may be approved by the Minister of the Interior and the Minister of Justice.

5. No timber on any lot leased for residential purposes, except so much as is actually necessary to be removed to make room for the building and reasonable access thereto, shall be cut or removed, except by permission of the Superintendent.

6. The location, design and general character of any building or fences to be erected shall be subject to the approval of the Superintendent and to the sanction of the Minister of the Interior.

7. Every person entering or passing into, across or through any of the Parks, shall, when requested to do so by the Superintendent, or any forest ranger, game guardian or any other officer having charge of or jurisdiction within such Parks, truthfully answer any inquiries made to him by such Superintendent, ranger, guardian or officer as to his name, his post office address, the duration of the proposed duration of his stay in the Park, and the portion thereof he intends to visit or has visited, and shall give such other information of a similar nature as such Superintendent, ranger, guardian or other officer may ask him.

PRESERVATION OF PROPERTY.

8. The defacement of any object at any of the hot springs, of any of the natural rock formations, or of trees, timber, bridges, seats or other structures by cutting, written inscription or otherwise, and the throwing of any stones, sticks or other substances whatsoever into any of the springs or streams in the Parks are strictly forbidden.

9. No advertisements other than those issued or permitted by the Minister of the Interior shall be posted or displayed within the Parks.

10. (a) No person shall cut, remove, or injure any trees or timber, growing or dead, or remove or displace any mineral deposits or natural curiosities except by written permission of the Superintendent.

(b) Any mineral, rock, stone, timber or any other public property whatsoever taken from lands within the Parks without proper permission or without the rental, dues, or other charges provided for by the Regulations being paid thereon, shall be liable to seizure by the Superintendent, forest ranger, game-guardian or other officer having jurisdiction within the Parks, whether or not such material has been removed from the Parks, and the material so seized may, unless required for public purposes, be disposed of by public auction, and if no bid equal to the moneys due thereon is made, may be disposed of by private sale.

(c) In the discretion of the Superintendent, such material may be released upon payment of expenses and double the rental, dues and other charges fixed by the Regulations.

FIRES.

11. No person shall at any time set out or cause to be set out or started, any fire in the open air within the limits of the Parks, except for the purpose of cooking, obtaining warmth, or for some industrial purpose permitted by the Minister of the Interior to be carried on; and every person who makes or starts a fire in the open air for cooking or camping purposes, shall—

(a) Select a bare rock whereon to kindle such a fire wherever possible, and if there be no bare rock in the neighbourhood, then a site on which there is the smallest quantity of vegetable matter, dead wood, branches, brushwood, dry leaves or resinous trees;

(b) Clear the place in which he is about to light the fire by removing all vegetable matter, dead trees, branches, brushwood and dry leaves from the soil within a radius of ten feet from the fire;

(c) Exercise and observe every possible precaution to prevent such fire from spreading, and carefully extinguish the same before quitting the place;

(d) Any person who throws or drops any burning match, ashes from a pipe, lighted cigar or any other burning substance within the Parks shall completely extinguish before leaving the spot the fire of such match, ashes from a pipe, cigar or other burning substance.

12. Every person cutting timber within any of the Parks and every person located in or travelling or passing through any of the Parks shall be required to comply with all the provisions of any Act or Regulations established by the Government of the Dominion or of the Province in which such Park is situated for the protection of forests against fire, and any breach of such Act or Regulations shall be held to be a breach of the Regulations hereby established, and shall render the person making such breach liable to any penalty provided by these Regulations.

13. Any person who shall, directly or indirectly, personally, or through any servant, employee or agent, kindle a fire or let it run at large on any land not his own property; permit any fire to pass from his own land, or allow any fire under his charge, custody or control, or under the charge, custody or control of any servant, employee or agent to run at large, with the result that such fire shall pass into any of the Parks, shall be liable in addition to any penalty imposed by the Provincial Act, to the penalty imposed by any breach of these Regulations.

14. Every person in charge of any drive of timber or survey or exploring party, or of any other party within the Parks, shall provide himself with a copy of these Regulations and shall see that those under his charge are fully informed of the provisions thereof; and in case of a breach of these Regulations is committed by any of them he shall be liable to the penalty for such breach as if it had been committed by himself, unless he establishes that such breach was committed without his knowledge and contrary to his instructions; but such liability on the part of the person in charge of any such party shall not relieve any member of his party from personal liability for any such breach.

15. Every locomotive steam engine passing on a railroad through the Parks or through any part thereof shall, by the company or authority using the same be provided with and have in use all the most improved and efficient appliances to prevent the escape of fire from the furnace or ashpan, or from the smokestack of such engine, and it shall be the duty of every engineer in charge of any such engine to use all necessary means and appliances to prevent the escape of fire from any such locomotive.

16. Every railway company shall, at all times, keep the right of way free from weeds and other inflammable material and in such condition as not to allow fire to spread thereon and therefrom through coals, cinders or sparks falling from or emitted from locomotive steam engines.

PREVENTION OF NUISANCES.

17. No rubbish or any matter of an offensive nature shall be deposited, except in such places and at such times and under such conditions as the Superintendent shall designate.

18. All property connected with the water-works and served by the Sewer system shall be connected therewith as provided by the regulations in that behalf, unless exemption is granted by the Minister of the Interior.

19. (a) Any person camping within the Parks shall carefully clear up the ground on which his camp was located before his departure therefrom, and shall restore it as nearly as possible to its natural condition:

(b) All refuse shall be destroyed or buried:

(c) Any guide accompanying a camping party shall be responsible for the carrying out of this provision, but the other members of the party shall not thereby be absolved from personal liability.

20. Persons shall not be allowed to stand in groups or sit or lounge upon chairs, benches or other things in front of any public saloon, boarding house, hotel or place of public entertainment, or on any of the streets or sidewalks of the Parks so as to cause any obstruction to the free use of such street or sidewalk by foot passengers.

21. Persons who render themselves obnoxious by disorderly conduct or bad behaviour, or who violate any of the Regulations of the Parks may be summarily removed from the Park and will not be allowed to return without permission in writing from the Superintendent.

22. All slaughter-houses, butcher-shops, fish-stalls, and any other business which from its nature is or may become offensive or obnoxious, shall be carried on only at such places and under such conditions as the Superintendent may designate in a licence for the establishment of such business, and shall be subject at any time, on sixty days' notice in writing delivered to the owner or lessee in person, or left at his place of residence or place of business, to removal to such other place as the Superintendent may designate. Every licence issued under this clause, shall be subject to revocation at any time upon thirty days' notice to the licensee, and the business shall entirely cease on the revocation of the licence.

PASTURAGE AND HAY.

23. No live stock shall be permitted to run at large, nor shall pigs, sheep or goats be brought into or kept within the Parks, except at such places and under such conditions as shall be designated by permission in writing from the Superintendent; provided, however, that licensed butchers may bring in and keep, for a period not exceeding thirty days, and at such places and in the manner to be prescribed by the Superintendent, animals to be slaughtered for food purposes.

24. The Superintendent shall, from time to time, select and designate pasturing grounds within the Parks, upon which leaseholders may pasture milch cows and horses; but leaseholders availing themselves of this Regulation shall make provision satisfactory to the Superintendent for herding the animals and driving them to and from pasture grounds.

25. All stock found pasturing, except where authorised, may be impounded, and held until a fine paid sufficient to cover the expenses of impounding such stock, feeding them while so impounded, and advertising; or the owner may be summoned and, on conviction, shall be liable to fine. Failure to pay the fine within thirty days shall render the stock liable to be sold by the Superintendent, and the proceeds of such sale, after payment thereof the fine, cost of maintenance, advertising and sale, shall be paid by the Superintendent to the owner of the stock. The Superintendent may authorise any person to act as poundkeeper, the rates of remuneration to be settled by the Minister of the Interior.

26. Permission to cut hay within the Parks shall be obtained from the Superintendent, and the cutting shall be subject at all times to his supervision and control.

MINING.

27. The Minister of the Interior may issue licences of occupation for the working of mines and the development of mining interests within the limits of the Parks, subject however, to the approval by the Governor in Council as to the terms, conditions and duration of such licences of occupation.

28. No person shall take or use any stone, sand, gravel or other material in the Parks without a permit from the Superintendent; and from each permit a fee of twenty-five cents shall be paid.

29. Any person desiring to burn lime or manufacture brick or cement within the Parks shall obtain a permit from the Superintendent, defining the location of the kiln or brickyard, and pay a royalty of one-half cent per bushel for all lime burnt, and, for all brick manufactured, a rate per thousand to be fixed by the Minister of the Interior.

HOT SPRINGS.

30. The waters of the Hot Springs shall be controlled by the Superintendent, and no person shall be permitted the use thereof without a licence granted under authority of these Regulations.

31. The distribution of the waters shall be under the management and control of the Superintendent, and without his authority no person shall in any way interfere or tamper with any spring, pipes, valves, traps, tanks or any other apparatus connected with the supply and distribution of said water.

32. The waters shall be supplied to bath houses using such waters under permission granted prior to the first day of January, 1909, at such rental per annum as may be fixed from time to time by Order in Council.

33. The Superintendent may at any time after two weeks' notice in writing shut off the supply of the said waters from any such bath house, the lessee of which may be in arrear for rent or who may have in any way infringed any of the provisions of this or the next succeeding clause.

34. The Superintendent or his authorised agent shall have free access for inspection at all reasonable times to any bath house or building using the waters of the Springs, or to any pipe leading to or within such bath house or building.

35. No further licences for the use of the waters of the Hot Springs shall be granted without the authority of an Order in Council in each case.

LICENCES.

36. No person shall do business as a pedlar, huckster or street vendor in the Parks without a licence from the Superintendent, who shall have power to issue or to revoke such licence in his discretion. The fee to be paid for such licence shall be fixed by the Minister of the Interior.

37. Annual licences may be issued by the Superintendent to guides, and no person shall be permitted to act in any such capacity within the Parks without such a licence in good standing. No licence to act as guide shall be granted to any person under eighteen years of age. Each such licence shall expire on the thirty-first day of March next after the date of its issue. The fee to be charged for such licence shall be five dollars.

38. Licences so granted may be cancelled by the Superintendent for failure to observe or for infraction of the Rocky Mountains Park Act or any regulation made thereunder, or any Provincial law or regulations for the protection of game or fish or the prevention of fire.

39. No guide shall be entitled to charge for his services more than fifty cents per hour.

40. Every guide employed by any party travelling through any of the Parks shall, before the departure of such party, notify the Superintendent of the number, the names and addresses of the members of the party, the date of departure, the route to be travelled, the proposed duration of their stay in such park and the fire-arms carried by the party.

41. The head guide shall be responsible for the good behaviour of his assistants and camp helpers, and for the observances of these Regulations by them and by the members of the party with which he is employed; but such responsibility on the part of the head guide shall not free any member of the party from any personal responsibility or liability for any breach of these Regulations.

42. All drivers of public vehicles and all boatmen shall be licensed. The fee for a licence shall be one dollar; and such licence may be revoked and cancelled at any time by the Superintendent if it is proved to his satisfaction that the holder thereof has been guilty of incivility, insobriety or misconduct, while discharging his duties.

43. The Minister of the Interior may issue a licence good for one year from 1st May in each year to any person or persons undertaking to place on any waters within the Parks a steam yacht or other vessel or vessels suitable for the conveyance of passengers, upon such person or persons paying the fee fixed by the Minister therefor, and in all respects complying with the Steamboat Inspection Act or Acts regulating steam and other vessels. The maximum fare which may be charged for the conveyance of passengers in such boats shall not exceed, when running on regular trips, up to eight miles, fifty cents; above eight and up to twelve miles, seventy-five cents; over twelve miles, one dollar.

44. Any person keeping bicycles, rowboats or canoes for hire shall obtain a licence, paying therefor the fees fixed by the Minister of the Interior.

45. The Superintendent shall, upon application, furnish each owner of a dog or bitch, upon payment of a fee of three dollars in the case of a dog and five dollars in the case of a bitch, for the licence authorising him to keep such dog or bitch; such licence shall expire on the thirtieth day of June in each year and shall then be renewed.

46. Any unlicensed dog or bitch may be impounded, and shall be released only upon payment of double licence fees and costs, and if such charges are not paid within forty-eight hours, such dog or bitch may be destroyed, without compensation to the owner thereof.

47. No person shall keep a restaurant, tea-room, lunch counter or refreshment stand; a theatre or similar place of amusement; a pool, billiard or bagatelle table; a bowling alley or shooting gallery for use by the public, without a licence which may be issued or revoked by the Superintendent in his discretion. Such licences shall expire on the thirty-first of May next after the date of issue, and the fees shall be the following:—

(a) For one billiard or pool table, twenty dollars and for each additional table, ten dollars:

(b) For one bagatelle, mississippi, pigeon-hole, or other table or board with balls, twenty dollars, and for every additional table, ten dollars.

(c) For a theatre or similar place of amusement, a restaurant, tea room, lunch counter, refreshment stand, bowling alley or shooting gallery, ten dollars.

48. No circus shall exhibit within the Parks without a licence which may be issued or revoked by the Superintendent in his discretion, and for which licence a fee of ten dollars for each day of exhibition shall be paid.

SALE OF LIQUOR.

49. No intoxicating liquor shall be sold within the Parks without a licence.

LIVERY STABLES.

50. Licences to carry on livery stables may be issued by the Superintendent in his discretion. Such licences shall expire on the thirty-first of May next after date of issue, and the fees therefor shall be as follows:—

(a) For the first vehicle drawn by two or more horses$10 00

(b) For the second vehicle, owned by the same licensee and drawn by two or more horses 8 00

(c) For the third vehicle, owned by the same licensee and drawn by two or more horses 6 00

(d) For the fourth and each additional vehicle, owned by the same licensee, and drawn by two or more horses. 5 00

(e) And, for the first vehicle drawn by one horse 6 00

(f) For the second vehicle, owned by the same licensee, and drawn by one horse 5 00

(g) For the third and each additional vehicle, owned by the same licensee, and drawn by one horse 4 00

(h) For the first saddle horse 4 00

(i) For each additional saddle horse 2 00

51. The rates to be charged for the use of vehicles, saddle-horses, or other conveyances shall be subject to the approval of the Minister of the Interior; and no greater charge than that fixed by a tariff approved by the Minister shall be made.

52. The rates for cartage of freight or general merchandise shall be subject to agreement between the parties interested.

53. Every person who keeps a livery stable or provides outfits for the parties travelling through any of the parks shall keep a record of the parties outfitted by him, the number of persons, their names and addresses, the guides accompanying them, the date of departure, their destination and route of travel, the time they propose to remain in such Park, and the fire-arms carried by the party. Such record shall be open at any time to the inspection by the Superintendent, ranger, guardian or other officer having jurisdiction in the Parks.

54. Every such livery-stable keeper or outfitter shall be furnished by the Superintendent with copies of these Regulations and shall furnish each party outfitted by him with a copy thereof.

DRIVING.

55. No person shall ride or drive on or over any bridge within the Parks faster than a walk; furious riding or driving on public roads is also prohibited.

56. Horses driven with sleighs shall be provided with bells.

57. No person shall ride or drive across any sidewalk, boulevard, vacant lot or common within the Parks without the written permission of the Superintendent. Horse racing is prohibited, except in such places as may be set apart for the purpose by the Superintendent.

58. The Superintendent may make such additional rules as may be necessary to provide for the safety of the public travel on the roads within the Parks.

59. Horses in use attached to any vehicle shall not be allowed to stand without being tied, or in charge of some grown person.

60. The tires on waggons used for freighting purposes on the road constructed by the Government within the Parks shall be at least four inches in width. This Regulation shall come into force on the 1st of April, 1910. All vehicles shall be provided with brakes; and it shall be the duty of the Superintendent to condemn and prohibit the use of any vehicle which is in his opinion unsafe.

PROTECTION OF GAME.

61. No person shall hunt, take, kill, wound, injure, or destroy, or pursue with such intent, any wild animal or bird within the Parks.

62. No dog shall be allowed to run at large in any townsite or other portions of the Parks. Any dog so running at large may be impounded, and shall only be released on payment of a fine of not less than two dollars and costs. If not claimed and charges paid within forty-eight hours the dog may be destroyed.

63. Any dog so impounded a second time may be destroyed without the option of a fine. The owner of any dog destroyed under these Regulations shall have no claim for compensation.

64. (a) No person shall fish for, take, catch or kill, from or in any of the waters of the Parks any fish that inhabits such waters, or attempt so to do, with any kind of net, seine or snare, rack, trap or weir, or night line or set line, or in any other way than by hook and line:

(b) No person shall use dynamite or any explosive, or any poison for the purpose of killing, destroying, injuring or taking fish in or from the said waters:

(c) Fishing for this purpose, or with the object of selling, bartering or trafficking in the fish so taken is hereby prohibited.

65. (a) No person shall, in or from the waters of the Parks, kill or retain or carry away, any fish less than six inches in length; and when any fish of a length of less than six inches is taken or caught, the same shall forthwith be returned to the water by the person taking or catching the same without unnecessary injury:

(b) No person shall, in or from the waters of the Park, kill or retain or carry away, more than fifteen fish in one day.

66. No fish shall be taken between the fifteenth day of September and the fifteenth day of May. Fishing may be prohibited in any of the waters of the Parks, or limited therein to any specified season of the year by the order of the Minister of the Interior.

67. All nets, seines, fish traps, and all snares, traps or other devices for taking fish and game unlawfully, found within any of the Parks, shall be subject to confiscation; and the person or persons in whose possession such nets, seines, traps, snares or other devices are found, shall be subject to the penalties provided by these Regulations.

68. The outfits of all persons, found hunting or trapping, or fishing illegally, or having in their possession game or fish killed within the Parks in contravention of clauses 61, 64, 65 or 66 of these Regulations; also such game or fish taken or had in possession by such persons, shall be subject to seizure and confiscation; but such seizure and confiscation shall not relieve such persons from the penalties provided for an infraction of these Regulations.

69. The illegal possession of each and every head of game shall be a separate offence.

70. The Superintendent of any of the Parks, or in his absence, any person occupying that position, or any game guardian appointed by the Minister of the Interior, shall have authority to enter upon and search the premises of any person or persons, whom he or they have reason to suspect, and do suspect of having fish or game in their possession contrary to any of the provisions of these Regulations, and if such person or persons shall be found to be in possession of fish or game contrary to the provisions of these Regulations, such fish or game may be confiscated.

71. No person residing in or visiting or travelling through the Parks, except a duly authorised game guardian, shall have in his possession or carry any rifle, shot gun or other fire-arm, unless such rifle, shot gun or other fire-arm shall have been sealed by the Superintendent or other officer authorised by the Superintendent; and no such seal shall be broken within the limits of the Parks, except as hereinafter provided.

72. Any unsealed rifle, shot gun or other fire-arm found within any of the Parks may be confiscated by the Superintendent, ranger, guardian or other officer.

73. The head guide in charge of any party shall be responsible for seeing that the rifles, guns and other fire-arms are sealed as hereinbefore required, and that such seals are kept unbroken within the limits of the Park. One extra seal for each rifle, gun or other fire-arm and a sealer shall be given by the Superintendent to the guide in charge of any party proposing to go outside the limits of the Park and on the return of the party to the Park the guide shall again seal all the rifles, guns or other fire-arms in his party; and such seals shall be broken only by the Superintendent, guardian, or other officer authorised for that purpose by the Superintendent. This provision shall not, however, exempt anyone from personal liability for the infraction of these Regulations.

74. Every guide entrusted with seals shall account therefor to the Superintendent who may require him to furnish evidence by statutory declaration or otherwise that no improper use has been made thereof.

GAME GUARDIANS.

75. Game guardians may be appointed by the Minister of the Interior; and such guardians shall have authority to enforce the laws and regulations in force within the Parks. Each game guardian shall be furnished with a badge of office which shall be displayed by him on every occasion when he is exercising the authority of his office.

76. Every game guardian appointed shall take an oath of office as prescribed by the Minister of the Interior.

77. Each head guide shall have the authority of a game guardian for the enforcement of the laws and regulations relating to the protection of game and fish and the prevention of fire.

MISCELLANEOUS.

78. Every description of gaming, and all playing faro, cards, dice, or other games of chance for stakes of money or other things of value, and all betting and wagering on any such games of chance, are strictly forbidden and prohibited within the Parks; and no person shall play at or allow to be played on his premises, or assist, or be engaged in any way in any description of gaming, as aforesaid.

79. The use of automobiles of every kind is prohibited on any road or elsewhere within the limits of the Parks.

80. Persons living or holding lands under lease within townsites shall remove the snow from the sidewalks in front of such lands.

81. All bread sold within the Parks shall have indicated upon each loaf the weight thereof. This shall be done by means of a mould in the bottom of the pan in which the bread is baked. The Superintendent or other officer appointed for the purpose shall have authority to examine and weigh at such times as he may consider advisable any bread found in the store or delivery van of any baker or bread-dealer within the Parks; and if such bread be found of less weight than that indicated upon the loaf, the Superintendent or other officer may confiscate the same and dispose of it by sale or by donation to some charitable purpose. Such confiscation, however, shall not relieve the baker of such bread from the liability imposed by these Regulations for an infraction thereof.

82. No person shall be permitted to bathe near any of the regularly travelled roads, dwellings, or other places of public resorts in the Public Parks without suitable bathing clothes.

83. All complaints by tourists and others as to service, etc., rendered in the Parks should be made to the Superintendent in writing before the complainant leaves the Park.

PENALTIES.

84. The Superintendent of any of the Parks, or, in his absence, any person occupying that position, or any game guardian, constable or police officer, may, on view, without warrant or legal process, arrest and bring before a Justice of the Peace, or before the Superintendent, to be dealt with according to law, any person found violating any of the provisions of these Regulations, or having in his possession fish or game contrary to the provisions of such Regulations.

85. Any person who violates any of the provisions of these Regulations, may be prosecuted under that part of the Criminal Code relating to summary convictions, being Part XV of the Revised Statutes of Canada, 1906, chapter 146, before a Justice of the Peace, the Commissioner of Parks, or the Superintendent of the Parks, who, for the purposes hereof, shall be ex-officio a Justice of the Peace, with jurisdiction anywhere in the Parks, or before any officer of the North-West Mounted Police, empowered by law to sit and act as a Justice of the Peace.

86. Any person who violates any of the provisions of any of these Regulations, shall, except as hereinafter specially provided, be liable on summary conviction to a penalty not exceeding fifty dollars and costs, and in default of payment thereof, to imprisonment for a period not exceeding three months.

87. Any person who violates any of the provisions of clause number forty-nine of these Regulations, which relates to the sale of intoxicating liquors within the Parks, shall be liable on summary conviction, to a penalty not exceeding, in each case, the sum of fifty dollars and costs, and in default of payment thereof, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months; and a moiety of every penalty imposed and collected under the provisions of this clause of these Regulations shall belong to His Majesty and the other moiety to the person laying the information.

88. Any person who violates any of the provisions of clause seventy-eight of these Regulations, which relates to gaming, shall be liable on summary conviction, to a penalty not exceeding, in each case, the sum of fifty dollars and costs, and in default of payment thereof, to a term of imprisonment not exceeding three months; and a moiety of every penalty imposed and collected under the provisions of this clause of these Regulations shall belong to His Majesty and the other moiety to the person laying the information.

JURISDICTION.

89. In order the more effectually to repress the offences specified in clauses numbers forty-nine and seventy-eight of these Regulations, every officer of the Parks, or officer of the North-West Mounted Police Force, or constable of the North-West Mounted Police, accompanied by or acting under the orders of a commissioned officer of the said Force, is hereby authorised, by force if necessary, and without the necessity of any intervention or process of law, to enter any suspected place, to arrest therein on view any person or persons found committing any of the offences aforesaid, and to bring him or them before any of the officers who, by these Regulations, are empowered to sit and act as Justices of the Peace within the Parks, to be dealt with according to law; and also to seize any tables, or other instruments, and money, securities for money, intoxicating liquor, and vessels and appliances used in connection therewith, in contravention of the said clause; and upon the conviction of such person or persons or any of them of such offence, in addition to any penalty imposed in respect thereof, the said table or tables and other instruments shall be forfeited and sold, or in the discretion of the convicting Justice, destroyed, and the money so seized as aforesaid shall be forfeited and applied, together with the proceeds of sales, towards the revenue of the Parks in the manner hereinafter provided.

90. For the control and management of the Parks in any manner whatsoever not specially provided for by the Rocky Mountains Park Act, Revised Statutes of Canada, 1906, chapter 60, or by any other Act of the Parliament of Canada applicable to the Parks, or by the foregoing Regulations, any existing Statute of the Province in that behalf shall be in force.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.

91. The revenues derived from any source under any of the provisions of these Regulations shall be deposited forthwith to the credit of the Receiver-General on account of the Dominion Parks, except as otherwise specially provided.

92. A printed copy of these Regulations, to be furnished by the Department of the Interior for that purpose, shall be posted and kept in a conspicuous place in every Government office, and in every hotel, boarding-house, bath-house, and livery-stable within the Parks.

93. Whenever in these Regulations the expression "The Superintendent of the Parks" or the "Superintendent" is used, it shall mean the officer holding that office at the present time under appointment by the Governor in Council, or any person who may be hereafter so appointed to the said office in connection with any of the Dominion Parks.

LICENCE TO AN EXTRA-PROVINCIAL COMPANY.

"COMPANIES ACT, 1897."

CANADA:

PROVINCE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.

No. 509.

THIS IS TO CERTIFY that "The St. Nicholas Estate Company, Limited," is authorised and licensed to carry on business within the Province of British Columbia, and to carry out or effect all or any of the objects of the Company to which the legislative authority of the Legislature of British Columbia extends, except the construction and working of railways.

The head office of the Company is situate at London, England.

The amount of the capital of the Company is five thousand pounds, divided into five thousand shares of one pound each.

The head office of the Company in this Province is situate at the City of Vancouver, and Rochfort Henry Sperling, Manager, whose address is Vancouver aforesaid, is the attorney for the Company.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this 28th day of July, one thousand nine hundred and nine.

[L.S.]

S. Y. WOOTTON,

Registrar of Joint Stock Companies.

The objects for which this Company has been established and licensed are:—

(a.) To acquire by purchase, lease, grant, or otherwise howsoever, and to sell, lease and deal in and with any land or any interest of any kind or description in, or any option or right of purchase relating to any land in the United Kingdom, North America, the Dominion of Canada, or elsewhere, and to plant, pave, drain, farm, cultivate, build on, explore, prospect, mine, quarry, or otherwise develop and exploit, and turn the same to account in any manner which may be considered expedient:

(b.) To acquire by purchase, lease, grant, or otherwise howsoever, options, lands, water rights, concessions, or rights for the construction of, and to construct, own and operate roads, leats, tunnels, wharves, canals, dams, reservoirs, irrigation, drainage and sewerage works, saw-mills, paper-mills, power supply works, railroads or tramways or works of any kind, and to own, make, build, acquire and operate engines, rolling stock, waggons, ships, barges and other plant and machinery of every description, and to purchase and sell stores and provisions of all kinds, and to carry on the business of hotel-keepers, store dealers and lumbermen, planters, brick makers, coal miners, carriers, ranchmen, dairymen, engineers, builders, newspaper proprietors, advertising agents and contractors, warehousemen and importers, exporters and general dealers in all kinds of products and things, whether manufactured or not:

(c.) To establish towns, villages and settlements, and to promote immigration, and to give away any land or other property of the Company for any public or private object:

(d.) To take or acquire by purchase, grant, licence or exchange, or otherwise howsoever, any easements, machinery, plant, stock-in-trade, patent or other rights or privileges, and generally any property or rights of any kind whatsoever in any part of the world, whether real or personal, or any estate or interest therein:

(e.) To improve, manage, work, develop, and turn to account any property, real or personal, acquired by the Company, or in which the Company is interested, and to sell, lease, convert into money, barter, grant easements, licences, or other rights over or in any other way realise or dispose of the undertaking, property, assets and effects of the Company, or any part thereof, for such consideration as may be thought fit, and in particular for shares, stock or securities of any other company, either fully or partly paid up, and to acquire, hold and deal with any such shares, stocks or securities, and to accept payment for any property so sold by instalments:

(f.) To lend money, either with or without security, and to draw, accept, indorse and negotiate bills of exchange, promissory notes, and other negotiable instruments:

(g.) To purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, rights and liabilities of any company or person carrying on, or authorised or intending to carry on, any business which the Company is authorised to carry on, and to acquire, hold and deal with the shares, stocks, or securities of any such company:

(h.) To acquire, buy, underwrite, sell and deal in stocks, shares, securities and obligations of every kind and description:

(i.) To borrow or raise money and receive money on deposit, and for the purpose of securing or discharging any such money or any other debt, or any contract of indemnity, or other obligation or liability of, or binding upon the Company, to mortgage and charge the undertaking, and all or any of the real and personal property and assets of the Company, present or future, and all or any of the uncalled capital for the time being of the Company: and to create and issue at par or at a premium, or discount, debentures, mortgage debentures, debenture stock and other securities payable to bearer, or otherwise, and either permanent or redeemable, or repayable, and to secure any obligations or securities of the Company by means of covering, or trust deeds, or otherwise, and, in the case of uncalled capital, to confer upon any incumbrancer such powers of making and enforcing calls and otherwise as may be thought fit:

(j.) To seek for and secure openings for the employment of capital in any part of the world, and to apply for, obtain and turn to account concessions of all kinds, and to carry on any business which an individual carrying on business as a financier would be likely to entertain:

(k.) To promote any company having any objects whether similar to those of this Company or not, the promotion of which shall be thought calculated to advance, directly or indirectly, the interests of this Company, or the interests of its shareholders, and to acquire, hold and deal in the shares, stocks or securities of any such company:

(l.) To pay all expenses of and in connection with the incorporation or promotion of this or any other company, and the obtaining the subscription of any shares or securities thereof, and procuring or obtaining settlements and quotations upon the London or foreign, Colonial or Provincial Stock Exchanges of any of such shares or securities:

(m.) To lend money to and guarantee the performance of the contracts and obligations of, and the payment of the principal of, or the dividends or interest on any stock, shares, debentures or securities of any company or person:

(n.) To amalgamate with any other company, whether its objects include any of the objects of this Company or not, and to enter into partnership or any arrangement in the nature of partnership, or any joint purse or profit-sharing arrangement with any company or person:

(o.) To take all necessary and proper steps in Parliament, or with any foreign, Colonial or other Government, or with any authority, local, municipal, or otherwise, of any place in which the Company may have interests for enabling the Company to give effect to these presents, or to carry any of the Company's objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution, or for any other purpose which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company, and to oppose any Act, Bill or Provisional Order which may seem, directly or indirectly, opposed to the Company's interests, and to apply for, procure, or obtain any powers, privileges, rights or concessions for this Company, or for any other company or person which shall be considered likely, either directly or indirectly, to further the interests of the Company:

(p.) To give pensions, gratuities, donations and emoluments to any person at any time in the employment of the Company, or engaged in any business acquired by the Company, and the wives, widows, families and dependents of any such persons, and to support and subscribe to any schools, hospitals, dispensaries, dining-rooms, baths, and places of recreation, and any national, educational, scientific, literary, religious or charitable institutions or objects, and any trade societies (whether such societies be solely connected with any trade or trades carried on by the Company or not), and any club or other establishment which may be considered to be in any way calculated to advance the interests of the Company, or of the persons employed by the Company, and to subscribe towards or guarantee the expenses of, or otherwise take part in the promotion of any exhibition:

(q.) To procure the Company to be registered or recognised in any place outside England:

(r.) To distribute among the members in specie any property of the Company, but so that no distribution amounting to a reduction of capital be made except with the sanction, if any, for the time being required by law:

(s.) To do all or any of the matters aforesaid in any part of the world, and either as principals or agents or trustees for others, and either in the name of the Company, or of any person or company, as trustee or agent for the Company, and either alone, or in concurrence with any person, company, government, or other body or authority:

(t.) To do all such other things as are, in the opinion of the Directors, incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects, and so that the word "Company" throughout this clause shall be deemed to include any partnership, association, or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not, and whether registered or domiciled in the United Kingdom, or elsewhere.

S. Y. WOOTTON,

Registrar of Joint Stock Companies.

The objects for which this Company has been established and licensed are:—

(a.) To acquire by purchase, grant, lease or otherwise howsoever any land of any tenure whatsoever, or any interest of any kind or description in, or any option or right of purchase or leasing relating to any such land in the Dominion of Canada or elsewhere in North or South America, or in the United Kingdom, or in any British colony, possession or dependency, or in any foreign country, and to plant and cultivate the same for the produce of fruit, corn, grain, timber, vegetables, flowers and any other plants or vegetables or vegetable products, and to develop and work the same for any agricultural, horticultural or pastoral purposes whatsoever, or as a farm of any description whether for the keeping of stock, poultry, bees, or otherwise howsoever, or for any mining purposes, or to develop, work, exploit and improve the same in any manner whatsoever, and to sell, lease, and dispose of the same, either absolutely or for any term of years or interest, and in any manner which may be considered expedient, and to distribute the proceeds of such sale, leasing or disposal from time to time amongst the members of the Company, and to establish, carry on and conduct any business of any kind whatsoever which may be considered expedient or desirable for the purpose of developing, working, exploiting and turning to account any land or property, or any part of the undertaking of the Company, or calculated in any way, whether directly or indirectly, to assist in attaining the above or any objects of the Company:

(b.) In particular, but without in any way limiting or restricting the generality of the objects set forth in the preceding or any subsequent clause hereof, to acquire the lands and property comprised in the draft agreements referred to in clause 3 of the Company's Articles of Association, and with a view thereto to enter into the same agreements, or any other agreement or agreements which may be substituted therefor, and to carry the same into effect, with or without modification, and to develop, exploit and improve the same lands and property by any of the means aforesaid which may be considered expedient or desirable, and to sell, lease and dispose of the same, and to distribute the proceeds of such sale, leasing or disposal from time to time amongst the members of the Company:

(c.) To acquire, purchase and apply water and water power in the Province of British Columbia for all or any of the purposes and in any of the manners and methods authorised by the Act of Parliament of the Province of British Columbia, the short title whereof is the "Water Clauses Consolidation Act, 1897," or any statutory amendment or re-enactment thereof now or for the time being in force, and to acquire, have, hold and exercise the rights, powers, privileges and priorities conferred by the same Act or any statutory amendment or re-enactment thereof upon and subject to all the terms, conditions and restrictions contained in the same Act, or any such statutory amendment or re-enactment thereof as if the same terms, conditions and restrictions were herein set out at length, and in similar manner to acquire water and water power in any other province, colony or country abroad upon the terms and subject to the conditions and restrictions contained in or imposed by any statutory enactment for the time being in force in such province, colony or country:

(d.) To acquire by purchase, grant, lease or otherwise howsoever, options, lands, water rights, concessions or rights for the construction of roads, leats, tunnels, wharves, canals, dams, reservoirs, irrigation works, water works, railroads or tramways, or works of any kind, and to make, build, purchase or hire engines, rolling stock, waggons, ships, barges and other plant and machinery of every description in connection with or for the use of or convenience of the Company's lands, or the produce thereof, or any other property, or the transit of produce, ores, minerals and other things, whether produced or made by the Company or not, or the supply of materials and other things required by the Company or any other person or corporate body, and to make up or manufacture and sell any products whatsoever of the Company's lands, or resulting from the Company's works and operations thereon, and to purchase and sell stores and provisions and manufactured articles of all kinds, and to carry on the business of store dealers and merchants:

(e.) To take, acquire by purchase, grant, lease, licence or exchange any buildings, easements, machinery, plant, stock-in-trade, patent or other rights or privileges, and generally any property whatsoever of any kind, whether real or personal, or any estate or interest therein which the directors may consider desirable in the interest of the Company:

(f.) To improve, manage, work, develop and turn to account any property, real or personal, acquired by the Company, or in which the Company is interested, and in particular any lands of the Company, and to sell, lease, convert into money, barter, or otherwise dispose of the undertaking, property, assets and effects of the Company, or any part thereof, and in particular any lands of the Company, for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, stock or securities of any other company, either fully or partly paid up, and to accept payment for any property so sold by instalments, and to distribute any such consideration from time to time amongst the members of the Company:

(g.) To distribute among the members in specie any property of the Company, whether by way of dividend or bonus, or as a return of capital:

(h.) To undertake obligations and liabilities of every kind and description, whether on behalf of the Company or others, upon such terms as may from time to time be considered desirable in the interests of the Company:

(j.) To procure the Company to be registered or recognised in the Dominion of Canada, or elsewhere in North or South America, or in any British Colony, possession or dependency, or in any foreign country, and for that purpose to do all necessary acts and things whatsoever:

(i.) To procure the Company to be registered and execute promissory notes, bills of exchange, and other negotiable instruments:

(k.) To purchase, or otherwise acquire the exclusive or limited rights to use any inventions, whether patented or not, which may seem capable of being used for any purposes of the Company, or the acquisition of which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company, and to acquire any grants, concessions, patents, patent rights, monopolies, trade-marks, or licences; and to use, exercise, develop, grant licences in respect of, or otherwise turn to account the property and rights acquired:

(l.) To amalgamate with, promote, form, establish, register, obtain the re-organisation of, purchase, or otherwise acquire, conduct, and carry on the business, good-will, or any interest in the same, of any corporation, company, society, partnership, or undertaking whatever, British, Colonial or foreign, with objects the same as or similar to, or calculated to further or assist in attaining the objects of this Company, or any of them, and to acquire or hold, either by way of purchase, security, or otherwise, any shares, debentures or obligations, or any interest in the capital, revenue, or profits of any corporation, company, society, undertaking, partnership or person, British, Colonial or foreign:

(m.) To create and issue any mortgages, debentures, debenture stock, bonds, or obligations of the Company, either at par, premium, or discount, and either redeemable, irredeemable, or perpetual, secured upon all or any part of the Company's undertaking, revenues and property, present and future, including its uncalled or unpaid capital, or otherwise, with such security as the Company shall think fit, and to raise capital or borrow money by means of any such mortgages, debentures, debenture stock, bonds or obligations:

(n.) To lease, exchange, transfer, mortgage, pledge, sell, surrender, or otherwise deal with or dispose of absolutely, conditionally, or for any limited interest, all or any part of the property, undertaking or business, rights, concessions or privileges of the Company, and to accept as payment therefor, shares, debentures, obligations, or any interest in the capital, revenues or profits of any corporation, company, society, undertaking, partnership or person, and to divide the same in specie among the members, or otherwise:

(o.) To establish and support, or aid in the establishment and support of associations, institutions, funds, trusts, and arrangements calculated to benefit employees or ex-employees of the Company, or its predecessors in business, or the dependents or connections of such persons, and to grant pensions, gratuities and allowances, and to make payments towards insurance, and to subscribe or make donations or gratuities to, or guarantee money for charitable, scientific, public or benevolent objects, or any other objects calculated to promote the interests of the Company:

(p.) To pay all the expenses of and preliminary and incidental to the promotion, formation, establishment and registration of the Company, or of any other company promoted, formed, established or registered by the Company, and all commissions, brokerage, discount and other expenses which may be deemed expedient for placing all or any of the shares or debentures, or other obligations of the Company, or of any company so promoted, formed, established or registered by the Company:

(q.) From time to time to create new shares, with power to issue such new shares, and any shares forming part of the original capital of the Company, in different classes, and with any respective rights, preference, rank, guarantee, privilege or postponement over or to one another as shall be authorised:

(r.) To pay or procure to be paid interest on the capital of the Company for the time being subscribed during the construction of any works the Company may undertake, or the development of any lands or property of the Company, and before profits are realised by the Company, out of any funds in the Company's possession, and to enter into any arrangement for the payment of such interest with any contractor or other person:

(s.) To allot the shares of the Company credited as fully or partly paid up, as the whole or part of the purchase price, for any property purchased by the Company, or in pursuance of any contract in connection with the Company's business, or for any valuable consideration:

(t.) To do all or any of the above things in any place, and either alone or in partnership or conjunction with any person or other association, and either as principals or agents, and to contract for the carrying on of any operation connected with the Company's business by any person or other association, and for any of the above purposes to take all necessary and proper steps with any foreign, colonial, or other Government, or with any authority, local or municipal, or otherwise, in any place in which the Company may have interests, for enabling the Company to carry any of the Company's objects into effect, or for extending such objects, or for any other purpose which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company:

(u.) To do all such other things as are incidental or may be thought conducive to the attainment of the above objects, or any of them, and so that the word "Company" in this Memorandum, when applied otherwise than to this Company, shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether corporate or incorporate, and whether domiciled in the United Kingdom, or elsewhere:

(v.) The objects specified in each of the paragraphs in this Memorandum shall be regarded as independent objects, and accordingly shall be in no wise limited or restricted (except when otherwise expressed in such paragraph) by reference to the objects indicated in any other paragraph, or the name of the Company, but may be carried out in as full and ample a manner, and construed in as wide a sense, as if each of the said paragraphs defined the objects of a separate, distinct and independent Company.

CERTIFICATES OF INCORPORATION.

No. 2,545.

"COMPANIES ACT, 1897."

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION.

I HEREBY CERTIFY that the "Robson Lumber Company, Limited," has this day been incorporated under the "Companies Act, 1897," as a Limited Company, with a capital of twenty-five thousand dollars, divided into twenty-five thousand shares of one dollar each.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this 10th day of August, one thousand nine hundred and nine.

[L.S.]

S. Y. WOOTTON,

Registrar of Joint Stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(a.) To carry on business as timber and lumber merchants, saw-mill proprietors, lumbermen, and timber and lumber and pulp manufacturers, in all or any of the branches of such business; and to buy, sell, manufacture, prepare for market, import, export, and deal in all products of the forest, and everything that may be manufactured therefrom, or in the manufacture of which timber or wood is used or forms a component part, and also building materials of all kinds, and for such purposes to acquire by purchase, or otherwise, build, own, lease or operate mills and factories of any description:

(b.) To acquire, by purchase or otherwise, timber lands, areas, berths, or limits, in fee, or under lease, or special timber licence, and rights of any and every description in timber or timber areas, from the Crown or others:

(c.) To acquire and hold by purchase, lease, or otherwise, real estate and other property, and to operate, manage, cultivate, sell, or otherwise deal with the same, or any part thereof:

(d.) To purchase or otherwise acquire, sell, dispose of, build, repair, charter and operate steamers, steam-tugs, and vessels of any description:

(e.) To construct, improve, maintain, equip, alter, work, operate, manage, carry out or control any roads, ways, water powers, reservoirs, dams, aqueducts, canals, sluices, flumes, skidways, tramways, logging railways, operated by steam, electricity or other mechanical power, telephone lines, electric supply lines, bridges, wharves, booms, timber slides, booming grounds, manufactories, warehouses, hydraulic works, electric works, houses, shops, hotels, stores, buildings, and other works and conveniences, which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to advance this Company's interests, and to contribute to, subsidise, or otherwise aid or take part in any such operations, though undertaken, constructed or maintained, by any other person or company:

(f.) To acquire, by purchase, lease, or otherwise, foreshore rights, booming rights, water privileges, docks, wharves, piers and warehouses, and generally all shipping facilities, requisite for the Company's business, and to construct, maintain and operate wharves and piers for the purpose of shipping and transportation, and to receive goods as wharfingers, warehousemen and carriers:

(g.) To record, purchase, or otherwise acquire water and water records, privileges, and grants, and to develop and turn the same to account, and to construct and maintain power works, hydraulic works, electric works, and to utilise, sell, or otherwise dispose of power and energy.

(h.) To carry on a general mercantile business:

(i.) To improve streams, drive, tow and raft logs and timber, and to construct, operate and maintain flumes, raceways, ditches, dams, and reservoirs, and to execute and do all other works and other things necessary or convenient for obtaining, storing, distributing and using water:

(j.) To carry on any other business which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried in connection with the above, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's undertakings, property or rights:

(k.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(l.) To enter into any arrangement with any Government, or authorities, municipal, local or otherwise, that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any Government or authority any rights, privileges and concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain and to carry out, exercise and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges and concessions:

(m.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(n.) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property and liabilities of any person or company carrying on business which this Company is authorised to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of the Company:

(o.) To borrow or raise, or secure the payment of money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property (both present and future) including its uncalled capital, and to redeem or pay off any such securities:

(p.) To draw, make, indorse, discount, execute and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures and other negotiable and transferable instruments:

(q.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company, or any part thereof, for such considerations as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(r.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the Company:

(s.) To amalgamate with any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(t.) To enter into partnership, or into any arrangements for sharing profits, union of interests or co-operation with any person, firm or company, or persons, firms or companies carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in any business or transaction which this Company is authorised to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company, and to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of or otherwise assist any such person or company, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company, and to sell, hold, re-issue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(u.) To procure the Company to be registered and recognised in any part of the Dominion of Canada and elsewhere:

(v.) To distribute any of the property of the Company in specie among the members:

(w.) To do all or any of the above things as principals, agents, contractors, trustees or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with the same:

(x.) To procure the Company to be registered and recognised in any part of the Dominion of Canada and elsewhere:

(y.) To distribute any of the property of the Company in specie among the members:

(z.) To do all or any of the above things as principals, agents, contractors, trustees or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(aa.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incidental to the formation, registration and advertising of the Company and the issue of its capital:

(ab.) To lay out land for building purposes and to build, improve, let on building leases, advance money to persons building, or otherwise develop the same in such manner as may seem expedient to advance the Company's interests:

(ac.) To obtain by purchase, lease, hire, discovery, location or otherwise, and to hold, possess, enjoy and sell mines, mineral claims, mineral leases, prospects, mining lands, mining rights of every description or any interest therein, or portions or rights for or in relation thereto:

(ad.) To prospect or search for, dig for, win, raise, get, quarry, crush, wash, smelt, reduce, amalgamate, dress, assay, analyse, refine, extract, prepare for market or otherwise treat or render to the most profitable merchantable value, and market quartz, ore, minerals, mineral or metallic substances and compounds of all kinds, coal, oil, stone and precious stones, whether belonging to the Company or not, and generally to carry on any metallurgical operations:

(ae.) To carry on the business of a mining, smelting, milling and refining company in all or any of its branches.

au12

"COMPANIES ACT, 1897."

I HEREBY CERTIFY that I have this day registered the altered Memorandum of Association of "The Dominion Carbolinum Works, Limited," together with one office copy of the Order of the Supreme Court, confirming the alteration.

As witness my hand and seal of office, at Victoria, British Columbia, this 9th day of August, one thousand nine hundred and nine.

[L.S.]

S. Y. WOOTTON,

Registrar of Joint Stock Companies.

The following are the objects of the Company, as altered:—

(a.) To carry on business in the Province of British Columbia, and throughout the Dominion of Canada, or any foreign country, as timber merchants, saw-mill proprietors and lumbermen in all or any of its branches, and to buy, sell, prepare for market, manipulate, import, export and deal in saw-logs, bark, timber, lumber, wood, shingles, paving blocks and railroad ties, and to manufacture and deal in articles of all kinds, in the manufacture of which, timber or woods are used or form a component part: to buy, acquire, possess and operate timber limits, factories, saw-mills, shingle mills, sash and door factories, pulp and paper mills, and machinery of all kinds, and to purchase, lease, sell and operate lands and timber limits: to purchase, take or lease, or in exchange, or otherwise acquire any timber lands or other lands in fee or otherwise, and also timber and timber limits by lease, licence or otherwise, and the right to remove timber or forest products of all kinds:

(b.) To divert, take and carry away water from any stream, river or lake in British Columbia, for the use of their business, and for this purpose erect, let and maintain dams, aqueducts, flumes, ditches, or other conduit pipes for the development of power or for the freighting of timber by any power at present known or that may hereafter be discovered or devised, and to sell or otherwise dispose of same:

(c.) To acquire, by purchase, grant, lease, or in any other manner, mines or mineral rights, mineral claims, placer claims, quarries, or marble or stone deposits, or accumulations of coal oil, petroleum, ores or minerals, precious or base, clay and other metals and substances; to search for, prospect, explore, mine, win, open, develop and work mines, mineral claims, quarries, brick, lime and cement works, coal oil, petroleum, creosote, corodium, oils, ores and other deposits:

(d.) To manufacture and use as a motive power, electricity or steam, and to manufacture or acquire plant, machinery, apparatus and materials of every kind for the reduction and distribution of electricity or steam; to generate, use or dispose of, supply or distribute electricity for lighting and heating or motive power, or for the separation of metals or ores; to construct, lay down, establish and carry out cables, wires, lines, accumulators, lamps and works, for the purpose aforesaid, and for every other purpose in connection with the Company's business:

(e.) To construct, equip, maintain, improve and operate wharves, docks, piers, dry-docks, marine railways and patent slips, and to carry on the business of docking, raising, wrecking and repairing vessels:

(f.) To carry on a general wharf, lighterage, warehouse and storage business, also the business of merchants, carriers by land and water, ship-owners, scow-owners, bridge-owners, and forwarding agents; to acquire, purchase, hold, hire, charter, operate, alienate, convey, or otherwise acquire and dispose of and build steamers and tug-boats and barges or other vessels, or any interests or shares therein requisite for the purpose of this Company's operations with all equipment and furniture, and to employ the same in the conveyance of passengers, mails, troops, munitions of war, live stock, meat, fish, ground and other products and treasure, merchandise and chattels of all kinds, including logs, timber and lumber:

(g.) To engage in the business and manufacture of and deal in tar, oils, creosote, corodium and other similar substances, and such substances as are required for preserving and enduring wood, paving blocks, ties, piles, poles, rails, shingles, and all articles manufactured from wood:

(h.) To acquire, by purchase, lease, exchange, or otherwise, land, buildings, machinery, easements, plants and stock-in-trade, and hereditaments of any tenure or description, situate in the City of Vancouver, or elsewhere in the Province of British Columbia, and any estate or interest therein, and any rights over or connected with the land so situated, and to turn the same to account as may seem expedient, and in particular by preparing building sites, and by constructing and re-constructing, altering, improving and furnishing or maintaining offices, houses, factories, warehouses, shops, wharves, buildings, works, and conveniences of all kinds, and by consolidating or connecting with or subdividing properties, and by leasing and disposing of same:

(i.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire and to use, grant licences or rights in respect of, or otherwise turn to account any patents, patent rights, brevets d'invention, licences, concessions and the like, conferring any exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to the use of any secret or other information as to any invention or process which may seem capable of being used for, or in connection with, any of the purposes of this Company, or which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(j.) To allot the shares of the Company credited as fully or partly paid up as the whole or part of the purchase price, for any inventions, property, goods or charters purchased by the Company, or for any valuable consideration as from time to time may be determined:

(k.) To borrow, or raise or secure the payment of money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by pledging or mortgaging any of the Company's real property or assets, and by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property, both present and future, including its uncalled capital, and to redeem and pay off any such security:

(l.) To draw, make, accept, discount, execute and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, debentures and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(m.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company, or such part thereof, or any of the property or assets, for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(n.) To make and to enter into agreements and contracts with any person or persons, company or companies, or any Government or corporation, as the Company may see fit:

(o.) To undertake and carry into effect all such financial or other operations or businesses in connection with the objects of the Company, as the Company may think fit:

(p.) To acquire and carry on all or any part of the business or property, and to undertake any liabilities of any person, firm, association or company, possessed of property, suitable for the purpose of this Company, or carrying on any business which this Company is authorised to carry on, or which can be conveniently carried on in connection with the same, or may seem to the Company calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company, and as the consideration for the same to pay cash, or issue any shares, stocks or obligations of the Company:

(q.) To apply for, accept, take, hold, sell, dispose of, and deal in shares, stocks, bonds, debentures, obligations, or other securities of any other company or companies, corporation or corporations, individual or individuals, as they may deem fit:

(r.) To take, or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on business capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company, and to amalgamate, enter into partnership, or into any arrangement for sharing profits with any other company or person carrying on, or about to carry on, business similar, altogether, or in part, to this Company:

(s.) To enter into any partnership or into any agreement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concessions or otherwise, with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorised to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as to directly or indirectly benefit this Company, and to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any such person or Company, or to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company, and to sell, hold, re-issue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(t.) To enter into any arrangement with the Government (Dominion or Provincial), or any authority, municipal, local or otherwise, that may seem conducive to the Company's objects, or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges and concessions which the Company may think desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise and comply with, or, if deemed advisable, to dispose of any such arrangements, rights, privileges and concessions:

(u.) To obtain Acts of Congress, Acts of Parliament or Legislature for enabling the Company to carry out any of its objects or for effecting any modification of the Company's Constitution, or for any other purpose which may seem expedient, and to oppose any proceedings or applications which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company's interests:

(v.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among the members in specie:

(w.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account or otherwise deal with the undertaking or all or any part of the property and rights of the Company, including the granting of powers to work any patents of the Company, upon any terms, with powers to accept as the consideration, any shares, stocks and obligations of any other company:

(x.) To pay for any property that may be acquired by this Company as hereinbefore stated, either in cash or in fully paid-up shares of the Company, or partly in cash and partly in such fully paid-up shares:

(y.) To remunerate by the issue of such paid-up shares or otherwise any person or company, for services rendered in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of any of the shares of the Company's capital, or any debenture or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or conduct of its business:

(z.) To procure the Company to be registered in any place or country:

(aa.) To give the Company's, or any, guarantee or warranty as to whom and whenever the Directors deem advisable.

To borrow or raise or secure the payment of money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property (both present and future), including its uncalled capital, and to redeem or pay off any such securities:

(p.) To draw, make, indorse, discount, execute and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable and transferable instruments:

(q.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company, or any part thereof, for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(r.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the Company:

(s.) To amalgamate with any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(t.) To enter into partnership, or into any arrangements for sharing profits, union of interests or co-operation with any person, firm or company, or persons, firms or companies, carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorised to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company, and to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any such person or company, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company, and to sell, hold, re-issue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(u.) To procure the Company to be registered or recognised in any part of the Dominion of Canada and elsewhere:

(v.) To distribute any of the property of the Company in specie among the members:

(w.) To do all or any of the above things as principals, agents, contractors, trustees or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(x.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incidental to the formation, registration and advertising of the Company, and the issue of its capital:

(y.) To lay out land for building purposes, and to build, improve, let on building leases, advance money to persons building, or otherwise develop the same in such manner as may seem expedient to advance the Company's interests:

(z.) To obtain by purchase, lease, hire, discovery, location or otherwise, and hold, possess and enjoy, and to sell mines, mineral claims, mineral leases, prospects, mining lands, mining rights of every description, or any interest therein, or portions or rights for or in relation thereto:

(aa.) To prospect or search for, dig for, win, raise, get, quarry, crush, wash, smelt, reduce, amalgamate, dress, assay, analyse, refine, extract, prepare for market or otherwise treat or render to the most profitable merchantable value, and market quartz, ore, minerals, mineral or metallic substances and compounds of all kinds, coal, oil, stone and precious stones, whether belonging to the Company or not, and generally to carry on any metallurgical operations:

(bb.) To carry on the business of a mining, smelting, milling and refining company in all or any of its branches.
